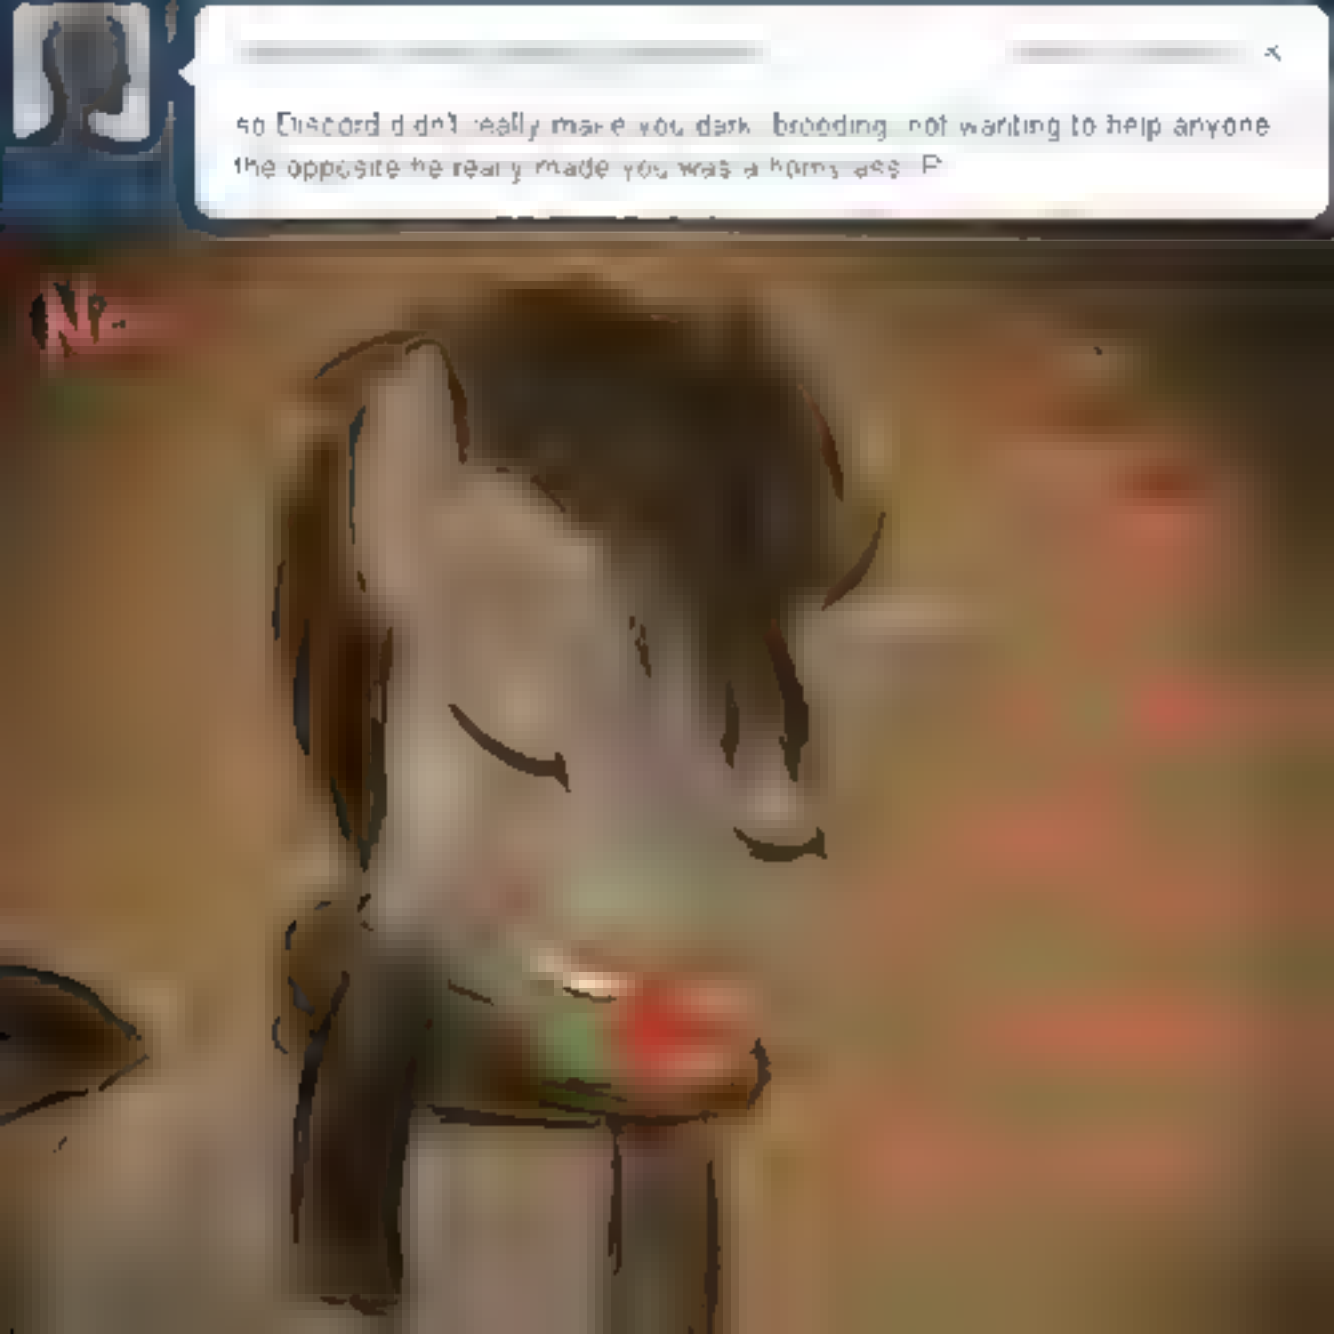
Doctor... I don't understand something. You hate Pony right? You are tired of the universe right? So... What's the problem if you create a time paradox in their universe by becoming a human again. Why would you care if the universe crumble?
I'd



so Discord didn't really make you dark, brooding, not wanting to help anyone the opposite he really made you was a horny ass :P

No questions. No demands. No complaints. No regrets. Just a big, hearty
THANK YOU to all the good things you have done for us in the past

You know what crazy Rarity you've been not so-secretly lusting after? I can get her for you in exchange for incredibly sexual favors
What things would you do to Lil Miss Rarity? :D

O me ya know or I know? Whimey Oh how come I wil became that sexually active? thought Discord turned ya inside out Wait Oh thats just rubbish

At first, you almost seemed sad, but now that I think about you have every reason to feel the way you do. Trouble will always be around, someone always needs to be saved. Still, I have to ask, why didn't you decide to become someone who caused the problems in the universe, instead of becoming a bystander who just watches as things slowly go to hell?

Do you think the imbalance could be caused by being too active? Or maybe the activeness is a result of the imbalance considering your hormones involvement.

You burning up your life force rather quickly aren't you? Are you not afraid you will end up like the master did burning up so fast the only way to sustain your existance is to consume other life?
Don't you aren't you the slightest bit worried that your body is going to shut down indefinitely? There's only so many times it can force you to sleep before it realises the current process isn't working What if you fall asleep and never wake up?

No I'm not worried or

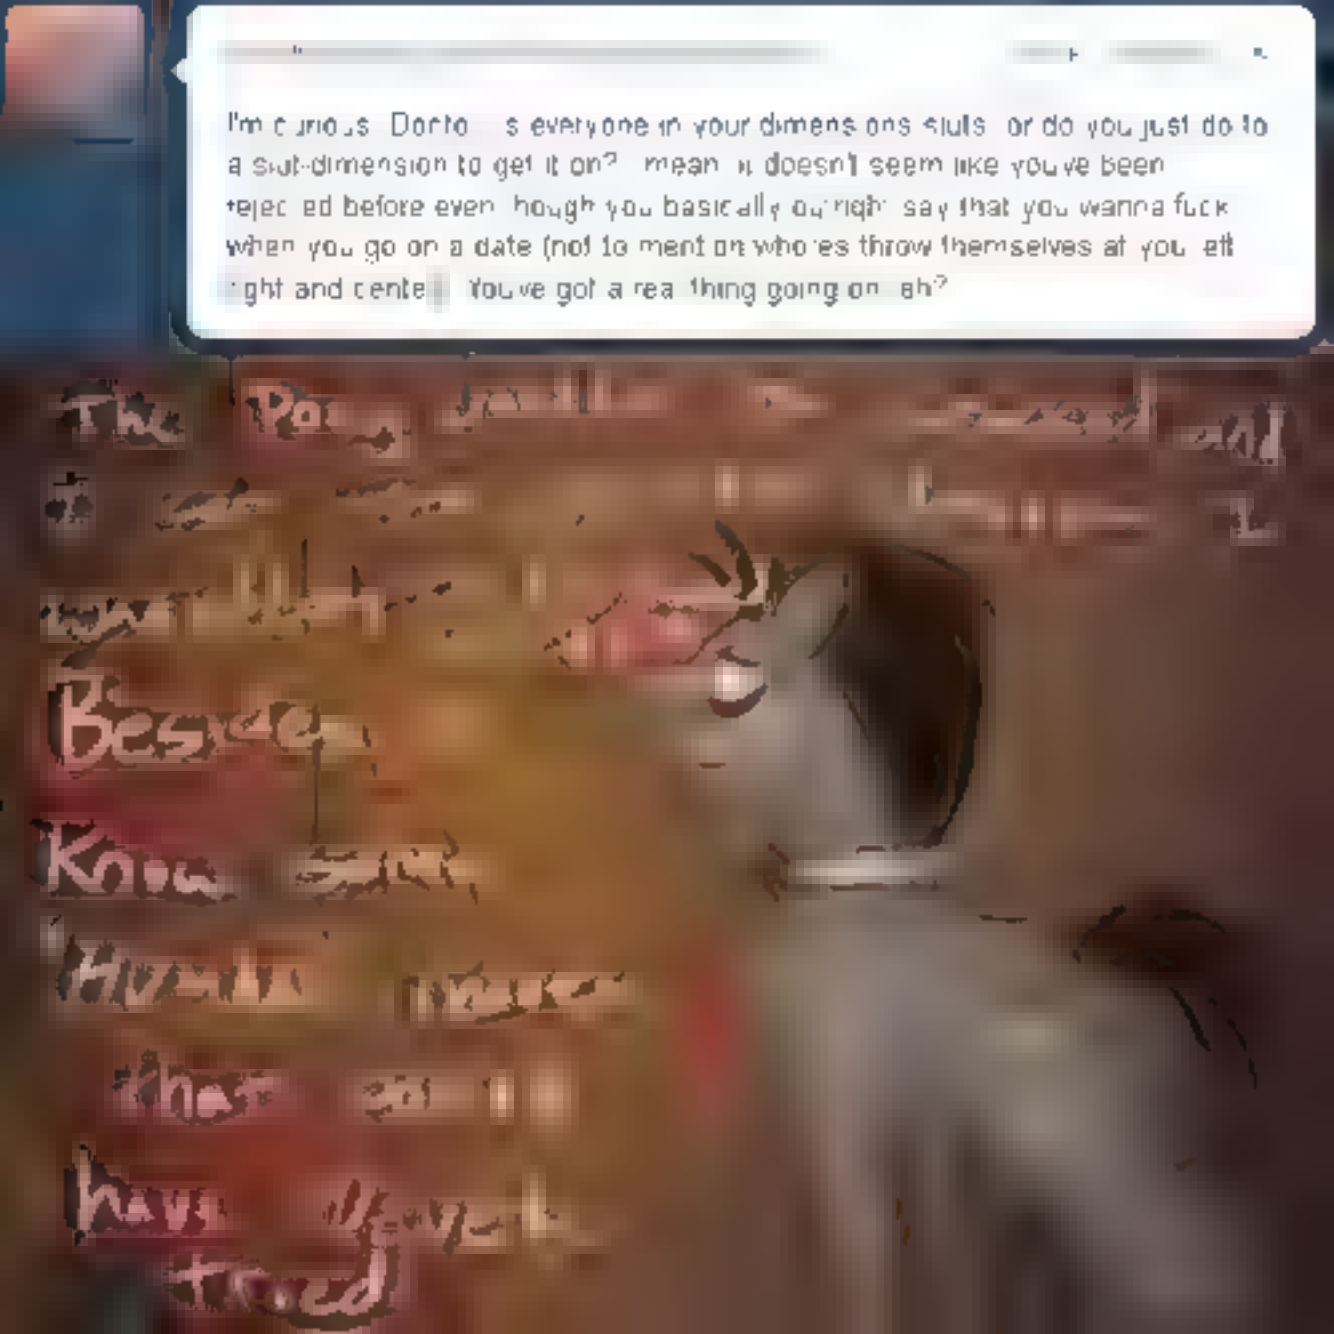
Okay, why are you time traveling and drinking? You should know better than that! Mind if I have a drink?



I'm curious. Do you fuck everyone in your dimensions sluts or do you just do it in a slut-dimension to get it on? I mean it doesn't seem like you've been rejected before even though you basically outright say that you wanna fuck when you go on a date (not to mention the whores throw themselves at you left and right and center). You've got a real thing going on, eh?

Let's see when did

Congratz Doctor you've been bassed What are you going to do now?
Whuu?

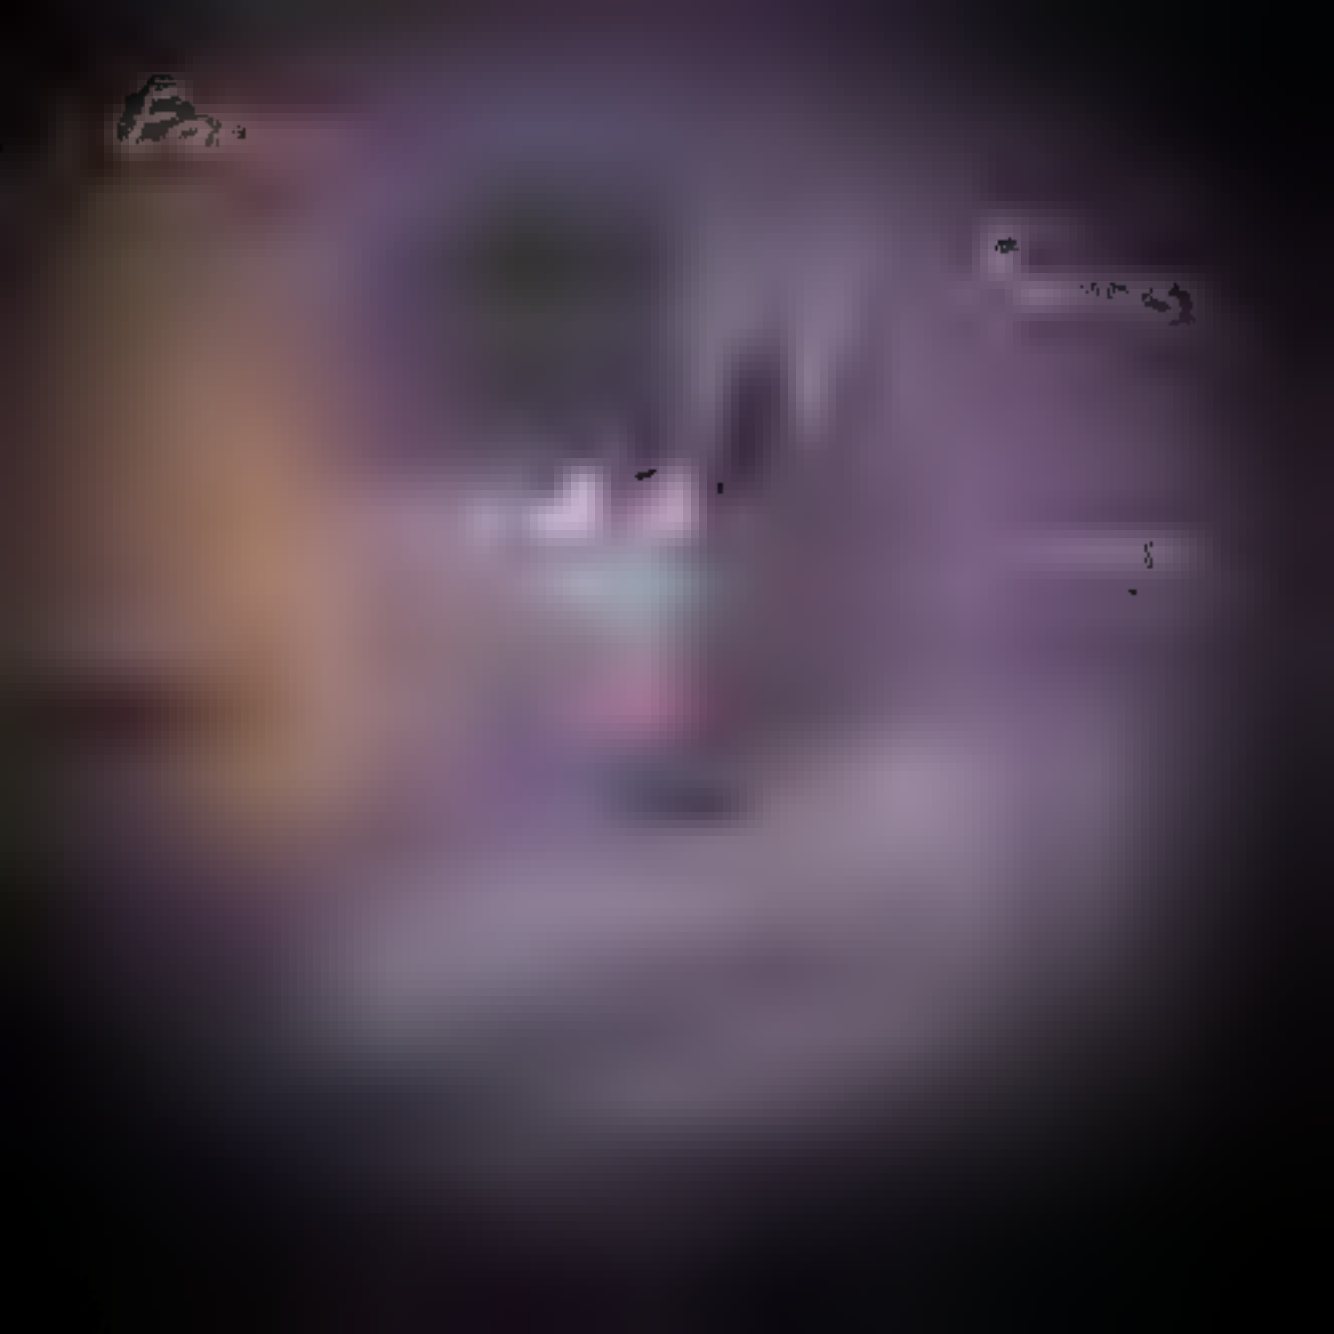
"human" move
Bowtie



Octavia has a nice flank, doesn't she, Doctor?

WOOT!! You're with Octavia now! The classiest mare celestial's side of Canterlot's Ensemble! Play your cards right Doctor and she just might use her hooves to "fiddle" you a passionate Midnight Sonata

Careful now Doctor as attractive as Octavia may be she isn't the wayward type Use your next plan of action wisely or risk taking that cello bow she has up a very unpleasant spot

Te he your a music c tic that should solve eve ything or make things worse but it's worth a shot

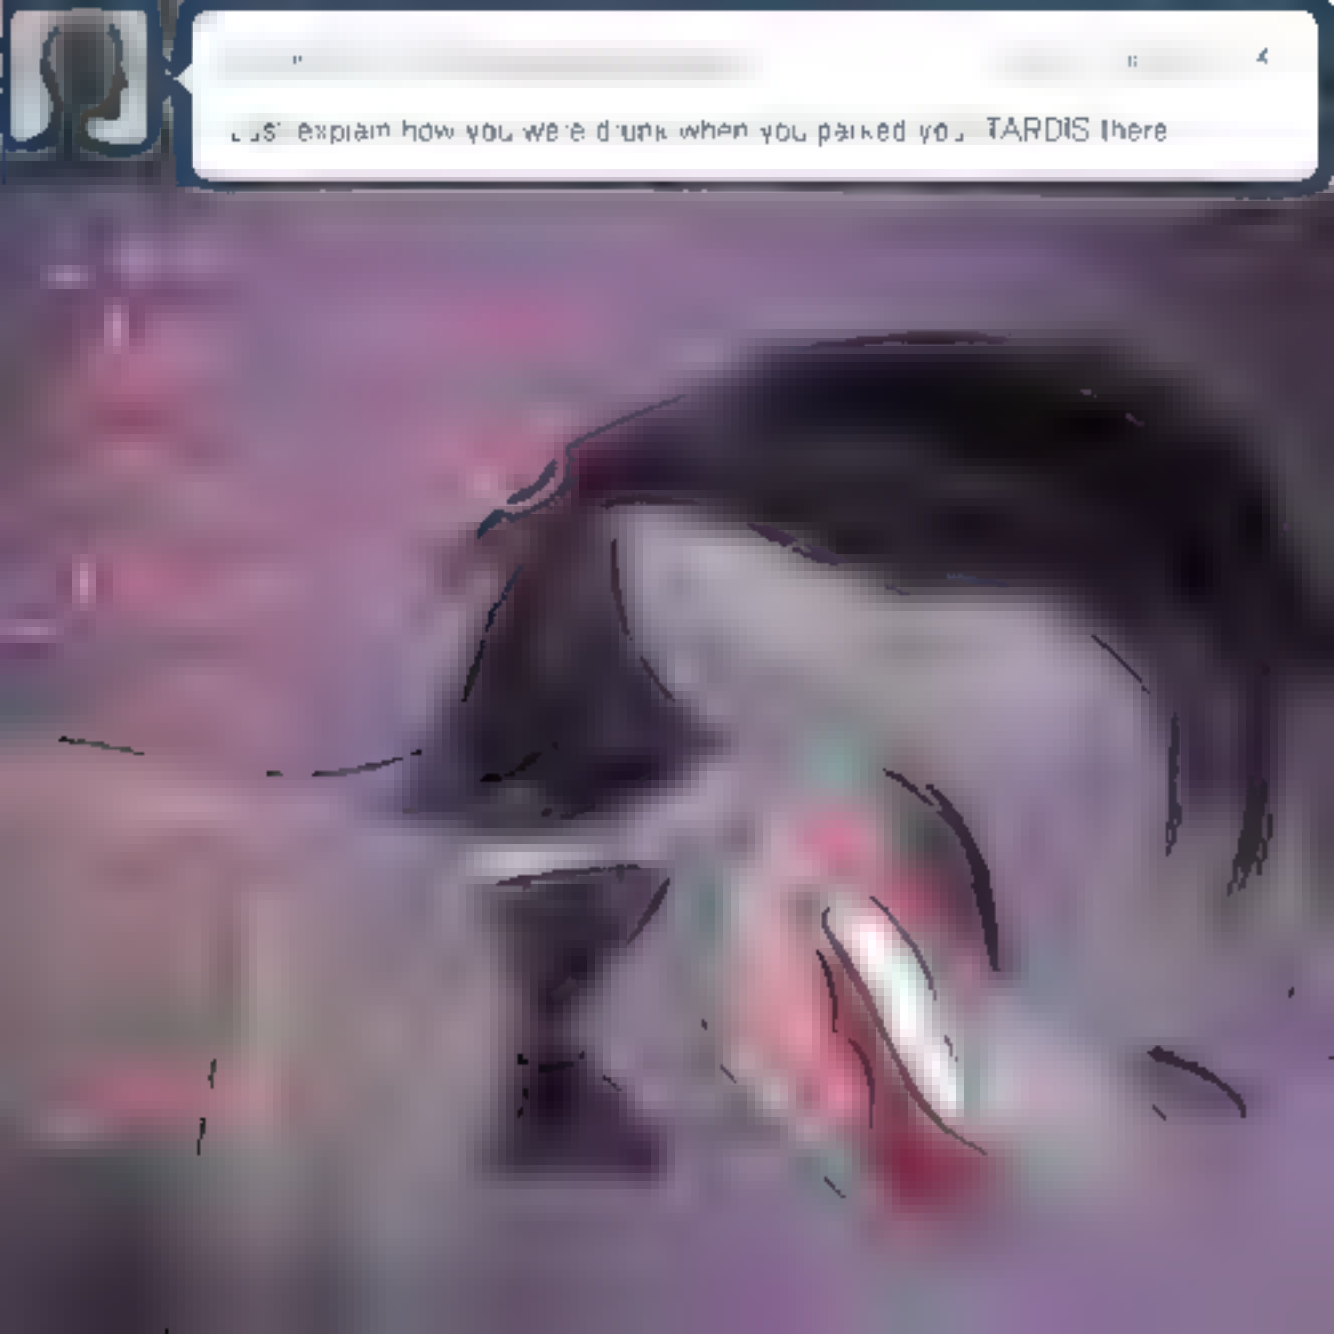
Here's an Tip: Don't try and Seduce Octavia she's too frigid just read the situation and hope you're able to hold a steady conversation you can't do that never mind Blame somepony Else! Anypony just think of somepony
Telepathed me

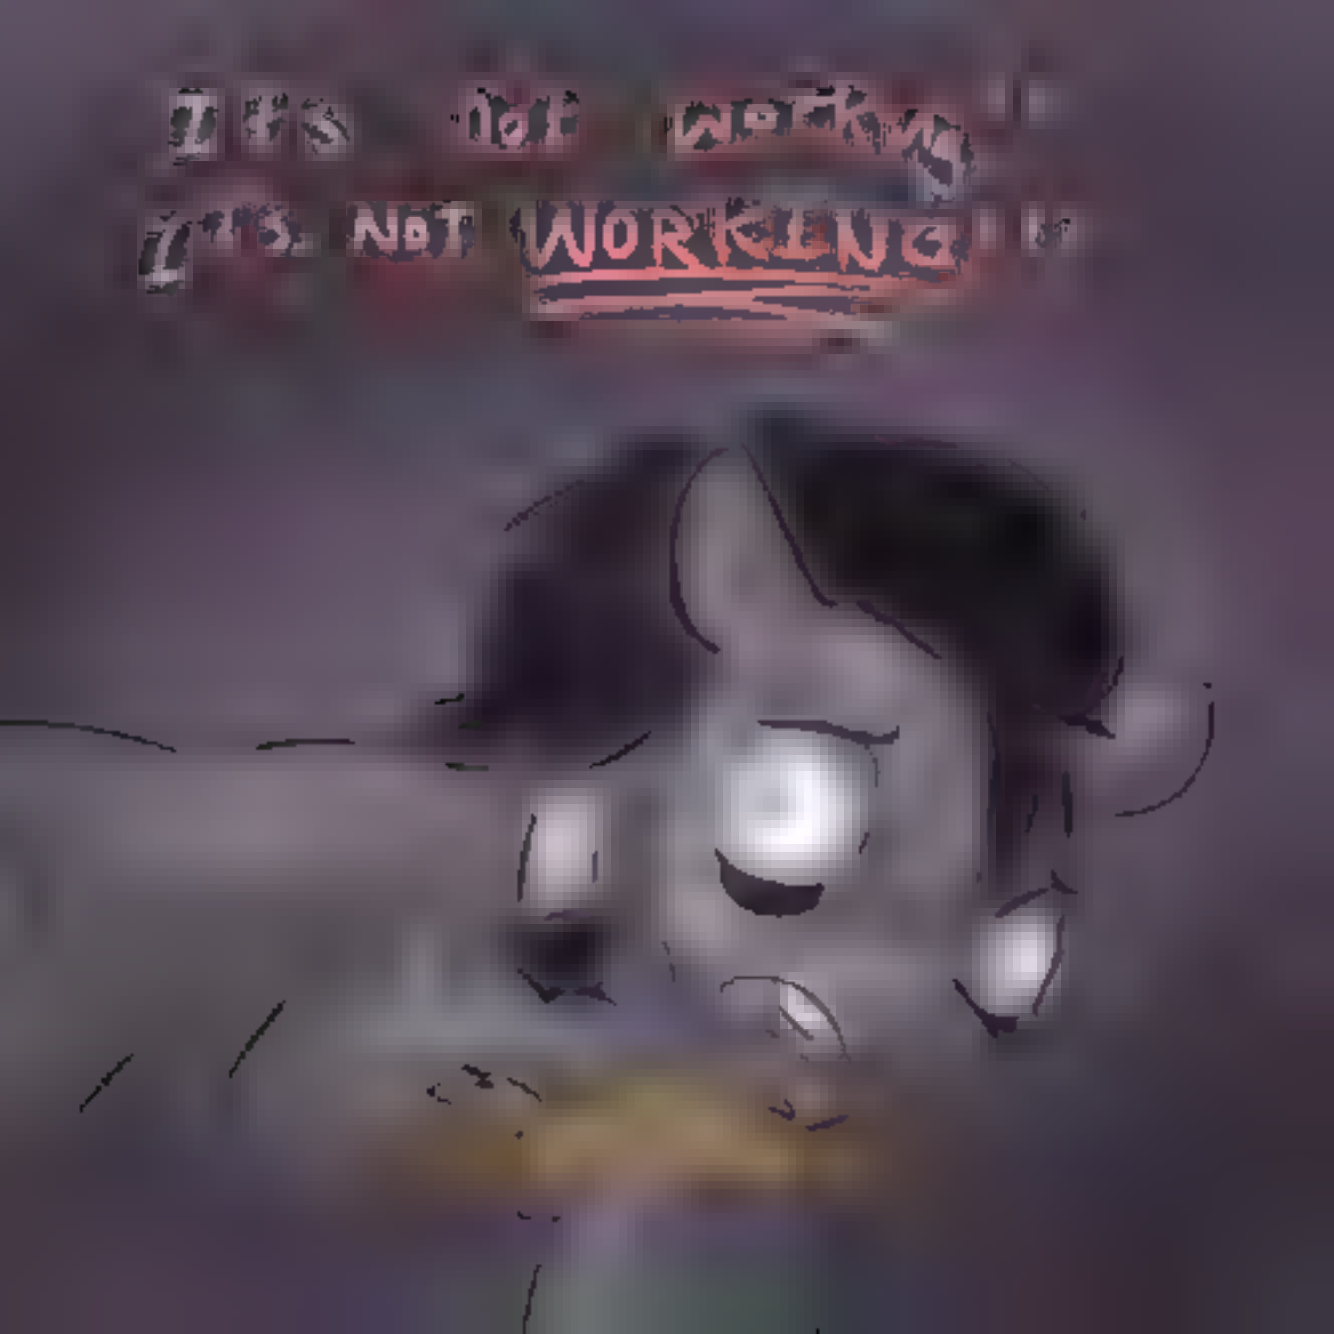


Just explain how you were drunk when you parked your TARDIS there

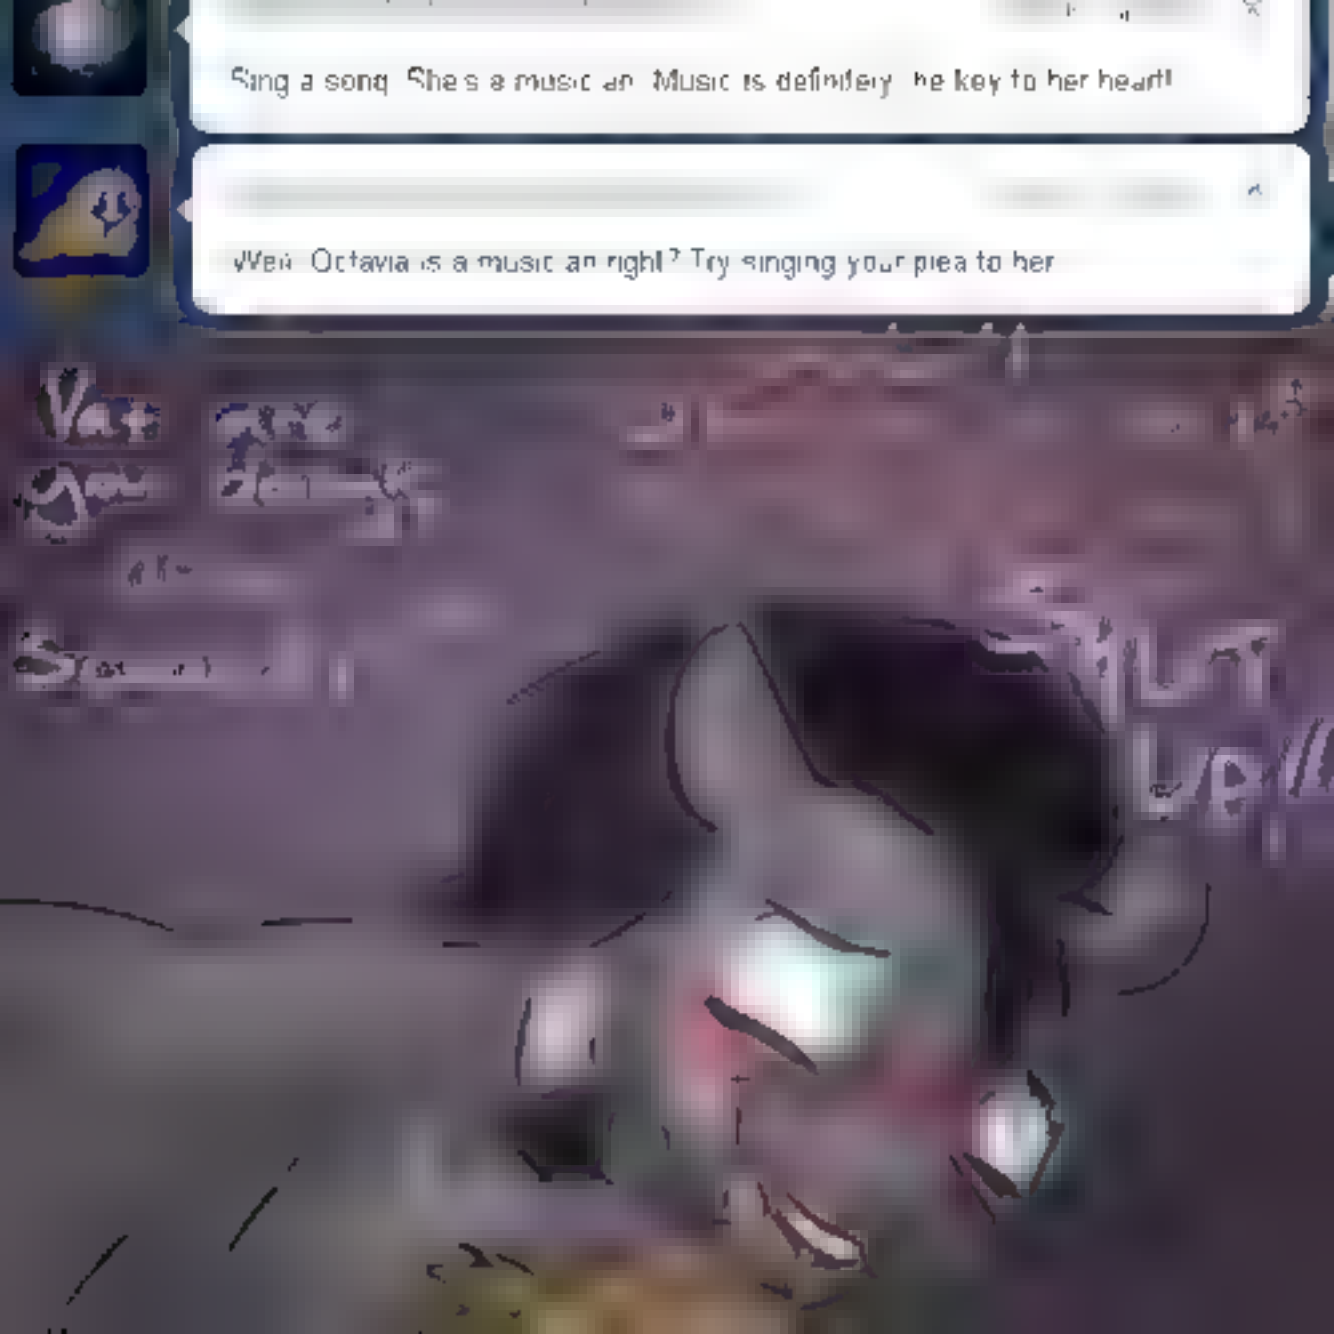
Well crap Try to stop her Quick
Quick DoctorMuggle you way over to Octavia while she's calling and knock her down

Well this s a load of crap quick while she s gone inch your way to the TARDIS to find your screw-driver or did she take you far away from the Tar Well nice knowing ya buddy

What are you waiting for?! Chew the ropes off, you're a pony for Celestia's sake
EAT THOUGH THE ROPES! and if you can't do that EAT THROUGH THE GROUND!



IT'S NOT WORKING
IT'S NOT WORKING!!



Sing a song. She's a musician. Music is definitely the key to her heart!
Well, Octavia is a musician right? Try singing your plea to her

QUICK PLAY DEAD

Beg her not to BEG HER

Doctor why don't you try offering her something for your freedom? A fez or a bowtie perhaps? No maybe a lost composition of a famous musician pony

Ey yo why don't you us , you know offer her somethin she may like yo Bitches love it when fellas offer them shit they like na mean"

Forget the ropes! Gnaw through your legs like a trapped coyote wiggle your stump of a body back to the TARDIS and escape You can regrow/reattach your legs later YOU'RE TOO PRETTY FOR PRISON

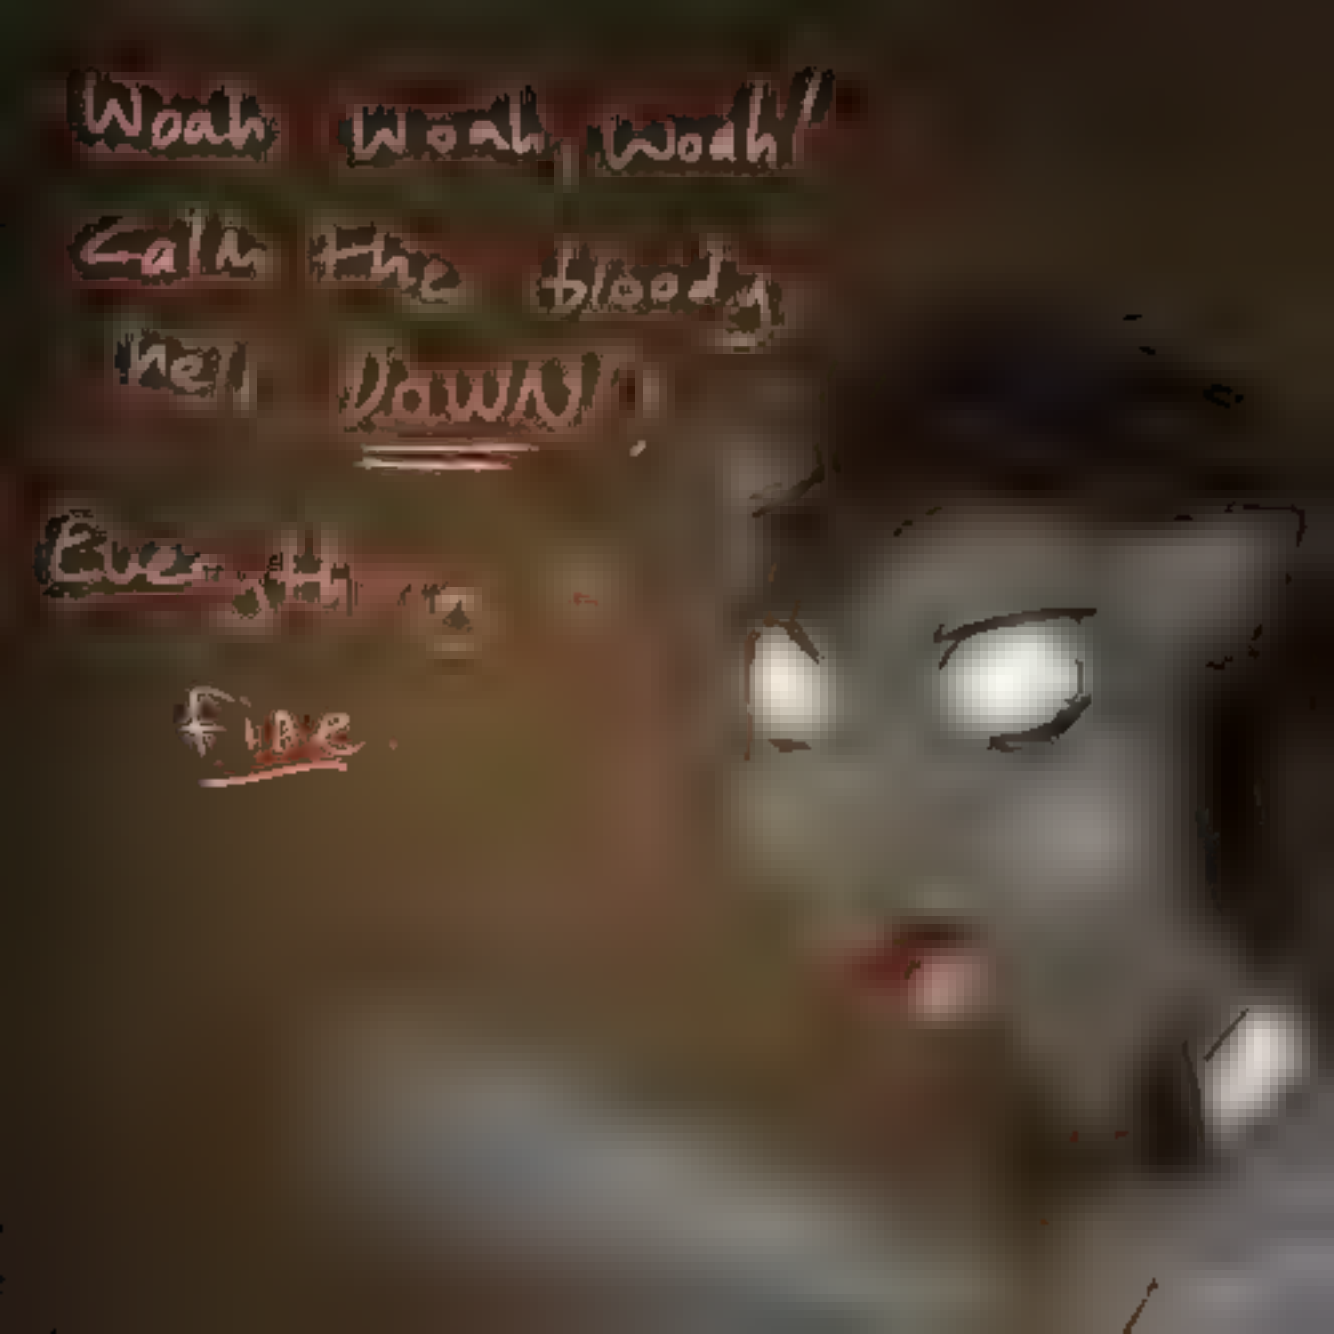
You could try to convince her by showing her the inside of the TARDIS
We you have to show her the TARDIS for her to believe it and besides its not like she can drive it anyway
QUICK! Tell her to look inside the TARDIS that'll convince her

(GRR, I'M

Let's hope Octavia doesn't touch anything randomly in the TARDIS. :O Think of the random Pinkie-Pie-Style Things that could happen.

What if she still hands you in to the police and keeps the tardis for herself because she doesn't know that only you can use it?

You're sure she's not going to just take the TARDIS? "Sexy" might be looking for a new thief after the way you've been acting.



Woah Woah, Woah!
Calm The bloody hell Down!
Breath
Fine.

Wait, why are you scared? You're the Doctor aren't you? You've faced worse than Octavia... Haven't you?

So when she unties you, why don't you offer her to be your companion? you look like you need one... I mean look at yourself, you were drunk last night so doctor, it appears you are quite the ladies man. How do you do it? what is your secret?

I got completely
